

Mental Health Support Team Summer 2025 Newsletter

Hello from the Mental Health Support Team – Southwark!

As the end of the school year comes closer and the summer holidays are about to begin, we're excited to share our latest round-up of services, events, and activities designed to support young people and families during the break.

This edition is full of opportunities to unwind, try something new, and make the most of the summer together. Whether you're looking for wellbeing support, fun ways to spend the day, or just a bit of inspiration, we hope you'll find something helpful here.

Wishing you a restful, joyful, and well-deserved summer!

Warm regards,

Mental Health Support Team - Southwark

Activities for Children and Young People

Please click on the below headings for further information about each event.

Southwark Presents

Find out what's happening in Southwark for children and families. From big arts organisations to local community groups - you can find a variety of listings here!

Bold Tendencies

Over 5 weeks, Bold Tendencies, in collaboration with Groundwork and The Nest, will run weekly workshops with up to 20 young people between the ages of 11 – 16 years. The programme is free and gives local young people a space to imagine, create, appreciate the arts, and exercise the right to joy.

Move Games - Kids Activities

Jump into awesome adventures this summer with fun activities at Move Southwark leisure centres including swimming, football, badminton, BMX, fun and games sessions, kayaking, sailing, tennis, table tennis and more! Activities start mid July. Bookings open 1 July. Spaces are limited.

Tate Kids (Online)

Free

Tate Kids offers a free, fun art hub for children: games, quizzes, drawing and painting activities, art history insights, homework help—and opportunities to share their own creations.

Food and Fun Holiday Programme

Free

For children aged 4 to 16 on benefits-related free school meals. The next programme runs from 28 July to 29 August, providing free, nutritious and tasty food and fun physical activity sessions.

Greenwich and Docklands International Festival (GDIF)

Free

GDIF is a free outdoor theatre and performing arts festival. It brings the streets of Greenwich and East London to life with acrobatics, dance, street theatre, and big installations. It's perfect for a family day out and in the evening, you can check out their spectacular night-time shows!

Science Owl Workshops for kids ages 6-12

Accessing support during the holidays

We know that while the holidays can be a time for relaxation and family fun, they can also bring unique challenges. If you're feeling overwhelmed or in need of support, please remember that help is available. Below, you'll find links to services that offer guidance, resources, and a listening ear during this period.

You're not alone—there's always someone ready to help.

Emergency Support

If people are injured or if there is a threat to life you should call 999.

> Southwark Emergency Support Scheme (SESS):

If you're a Southwark resident facing a crisis, emergency or disaster and you need help, Southwark Emergency Support Scheme (SESS) can help.

We normally provide goods or services rather than cash. For example, you might qualify for a food gift card or help with your energy bills.

Telephone: 020 7525 2434

> The London Victim and Witness Service (LVWS)

If you've been affected by crime in South London, call the London Victim and Witness Service (LVWS) on 0808 168 9291. Lines are open 8am-8pm, Monday to Friday.

If you need telephone support outside of your local team's opening hours, you can call our Supportline, for free, on 08 08 16 89 111. Supportline is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

> Southwark Domestic Abuse Service (SDAS) delivered by Refuge

- 0118 214 7150
- sdas@refuge.org.uk

> Safe Spaces

A Safe Space is a confidential, private and safe room for people who are experiencing domestic abuse, where they can access resources for support and make a phone call to get help.
