

1/9

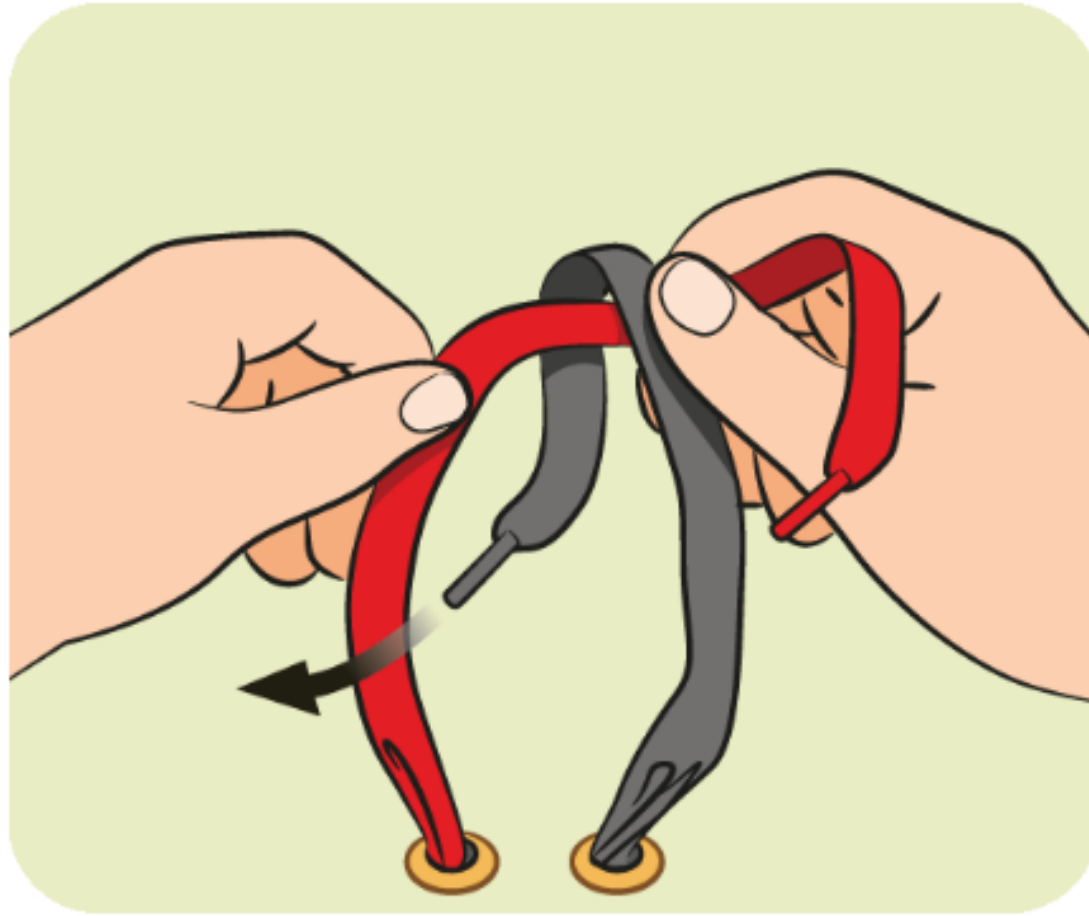

Tying shoelaces is an important part of getting dressed. The 'bunny ears' method is one way of tying shoelaces. The first step is to take a shoelace in each hand.

2/9

Cross the black lace over the red lace halfway up the laces.

3/9

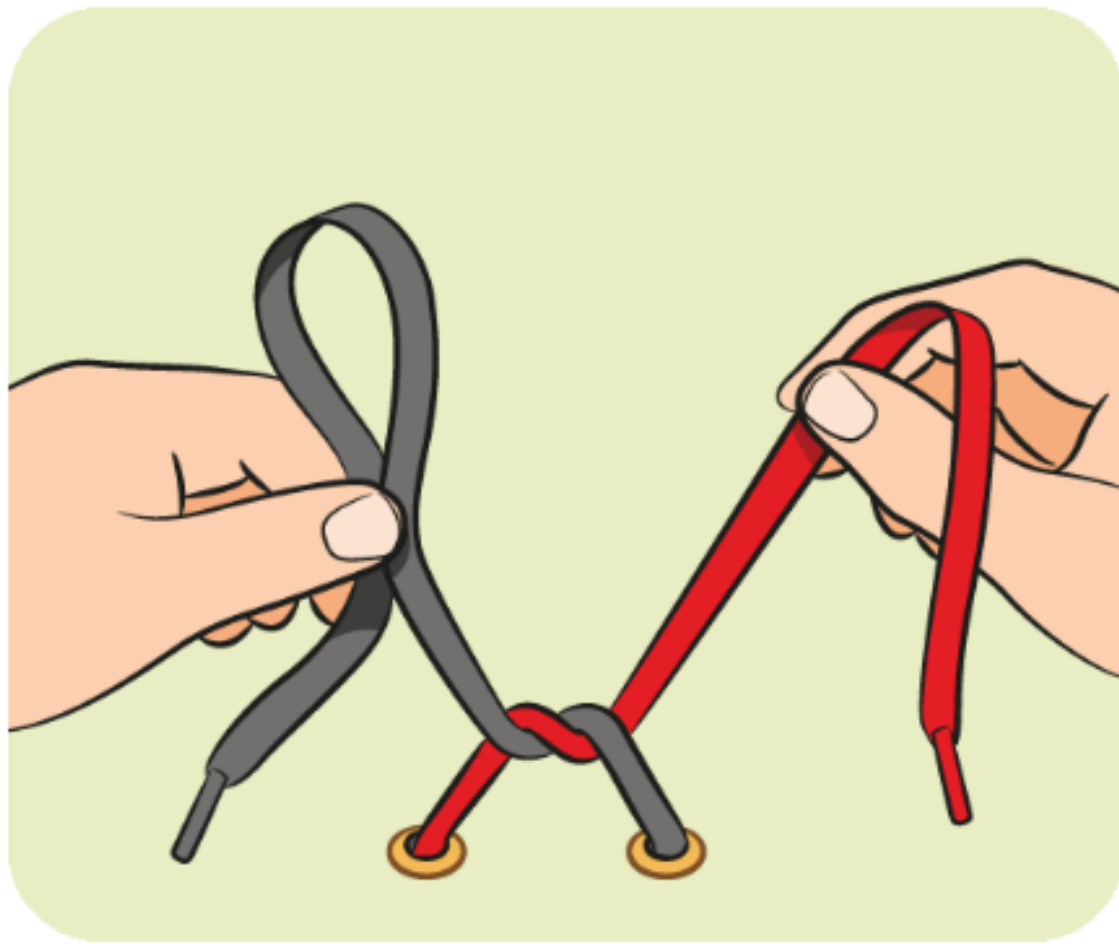

Take the end of the black lace and put it over the red lace. Now poke it underneath the red lace.

4/9

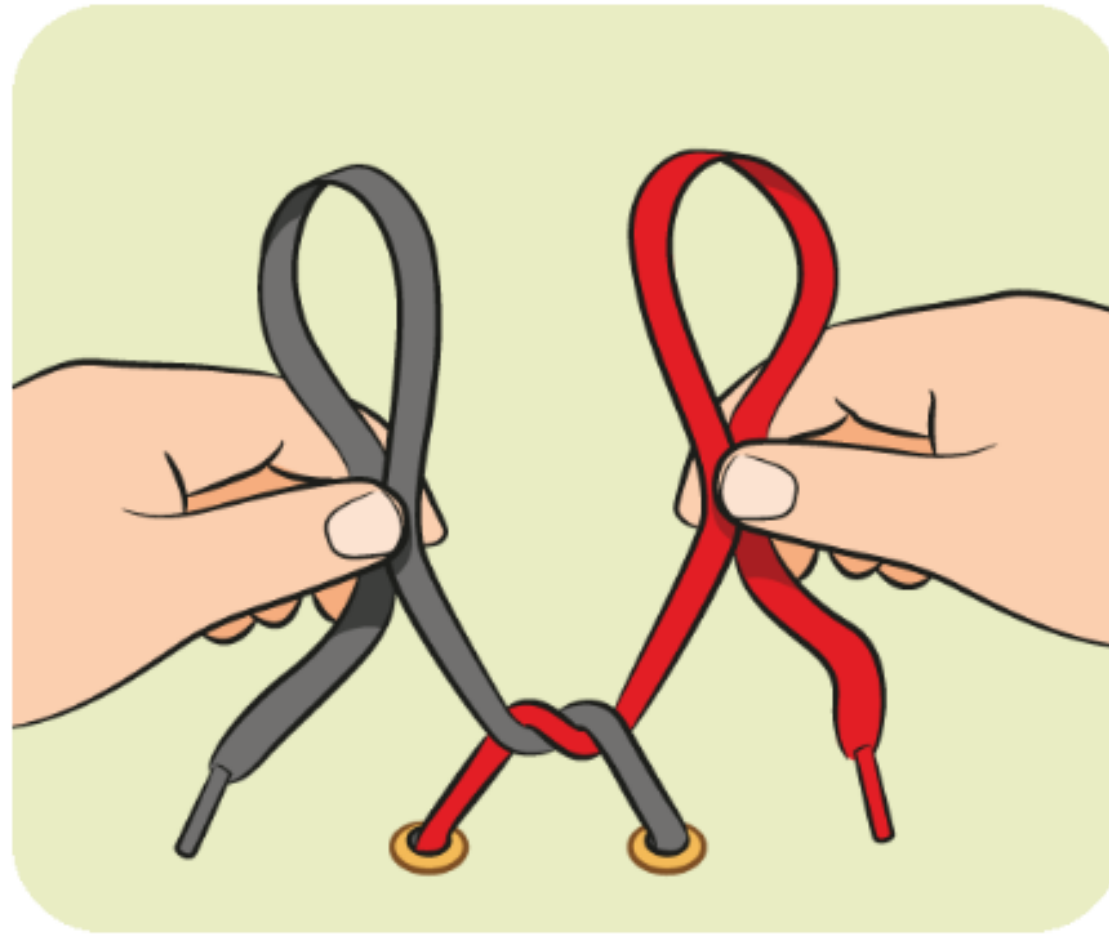

Hold on to the ends of the red and black laces and pull tight. The cross should now be close to the shoe.

5/9

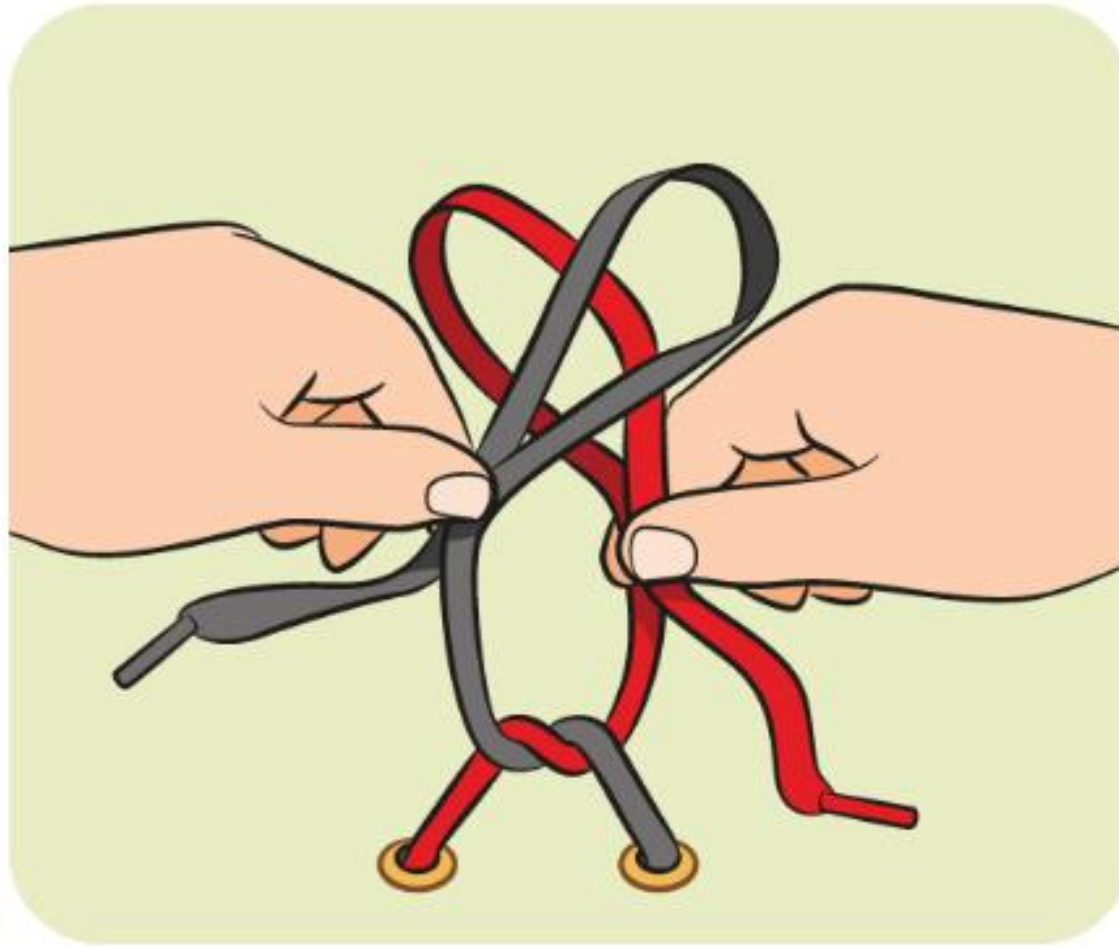

Take the black lace and make a small loop, or 'bunny ear'. This black bunny ear should have a long tail.

6/9

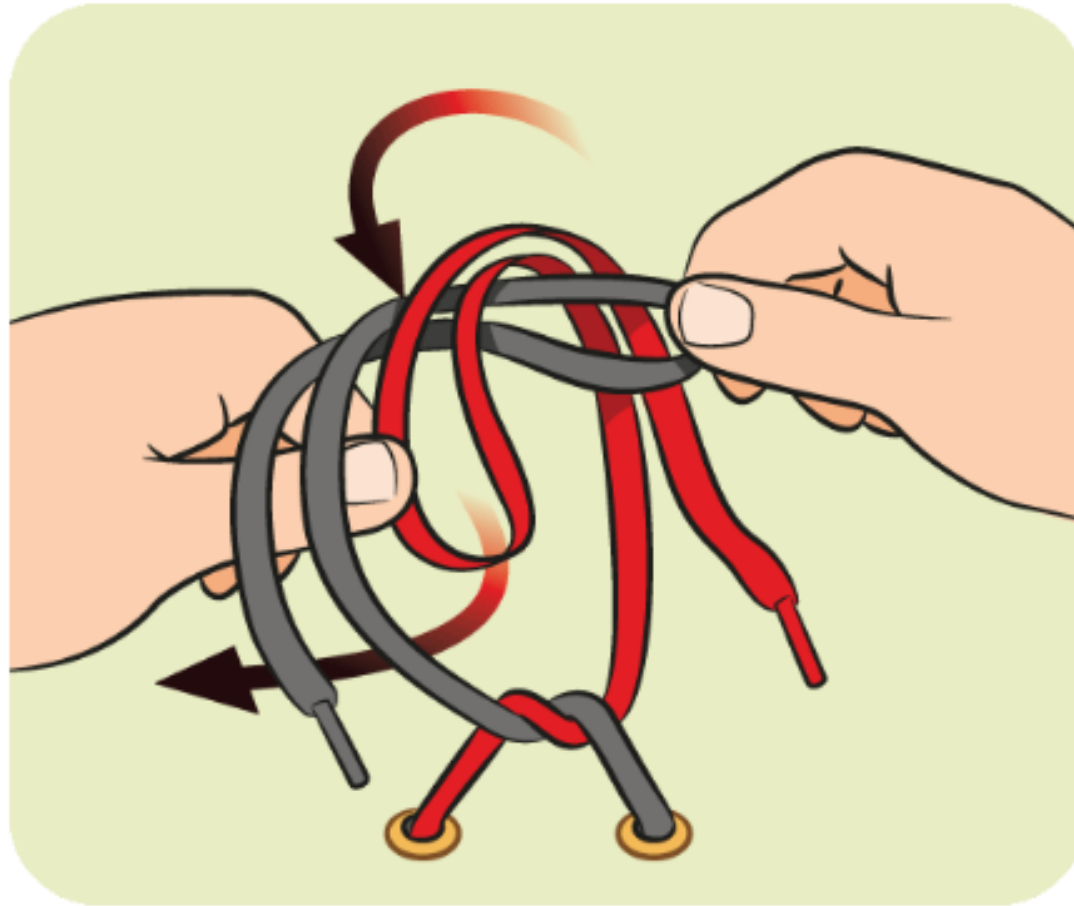

Take the red lace and make a small loop, or 'bunny ear'. This red bunny ear should have a long tail.

7/9

Cross the middle of the black bunny ear over the middle of the red bunny ear.

8/9

Take the top of the red bunny ear and put it over the black bunny ear. Now poke it through the hole.

9/9

Put your fingers inside the ends of the bunny ears, then hold on and pull tight. You've now tied the loops in a knot. The shoelaces are tied.