Vision and values

This week, we focused on the value of being creative and practical. During our assembly, we discussed the book “Stuck” by Oliver Jeffers, where a child gets their kite stuck in a tree and had to work out how to be creative and practical in getting it down. In class, the children then discussed what being creative and practical means to them. Should you wish to read the book and discuss being creative and practical with your child, click on the link below:

Creative and Practical

We learn by doing, in and out of the classroom.

~

We actively encourage children to engage in the world around them. Our creative curriculum develops every aspect of the child which includes academic, emotional, social, physical, and cognitive skills. Children are immersed in hands-on, practical learning experiences tailored to their developmental stage.

Respectful

We are respectful of each other's ideas, beliefs, backgrounds and practices.

We are considerate of the cultural identity and norms of the students and families we serve. Diversity, equality and inclusion are of great importance to us. We strive to support and educate children and adults to be sensitive to and respectful of diversity and put this into action through a socially aware curriculum and inclusive activities.

Next week, our core value is respectful.

Inclusion update

Please direct all inclusion enquiries to Lori Knight.

IntoUniversity - mission

Young people growing up in Britain's least privileged neighbourhoods have always faced an uphill struggle. Homes are often overcrowded spaces where young people have nowhere to study, where devices are shared between siblings, and where hard-pressed families do not have spare cash for tutors and after-school activities. Few get the grades to go to university.

As a result, many families are caught in a vicious cycle, where the disadvantages of one generation are passed onto the next. This creates neighbourhoods where for decades, poverty and educational underachievement have gone hand in hand.

The pandemic has made the challenge tougher, with young people experiencing months of lost learning and missed opportunities for work experience and skills development. In the least advantaged neighbourhoods, poverty is getting worse and the hill to be climbed is now even steeper than before.

In these communities, IntoUniversity centres offer a safe space for young people to learn, explore and succeed, a welcoming and supportive home-from-home, located in young people's neighbourhoods.

IntoUniversity Kennington is based at Keyworth Primary School and our KS2 children (as well as children from other local schools) are fortunate to attend FOCUS sessions that inspire and support ambition, as well as having the opportunity to receive additional tuition after school each week. Should you wish to find out more about the work of IntoUniversity Kennington, please contact the school office.

Year 6 - IntoUniversity

Year 6 had a fantastic time learning about social justice at their IntoUniversity FOCUS session.

Year 6 - The Jewish Museum

On Tuesday, year 6 visited The Jewish Museum to learn all about Jewish history, culture and migration.

Year 1 - Autumn Walk

Year 1 hunted for signs of autumn during their visit to a local park.

Festival of Sports

At the end of last half-term, a group of our children took part in a Festival of Sports. Activities included multi-sports, cricket, football, capoeira, volleyball and athletics.

Year 4 - British Library

On Thursday, children in Year 4 visited the British Library to take part in a workshop all about sound. After the workshop, they had a chance to explore the different exhibitions in the library. The children particularly enjoyed seeing the ancient sacred texts and the stamps from all around the world.

My Heritage - Celebrating our Cultures and Diversity event

Thank you to everyone who organised and/or supported Keyworth Friends' My Heritage - Celebrating our Cultures and Diversity event at the end of the last half-term. It was a great success and sent a positive message within our school community of inclusivity and respect for all. Congratulations too to our poster competition winners:

Erovre (RCM)
Evazi (1HE)
Amira (3AB)
Maryama (6MO)

Keyworth Friends will be hosting a Winter Fair on Friday 9th December, so look out for further details. Again, we would appreciate the support of parent/carer volunteers in the organising and running of the event.

Online safety

This week, class 5JA delivered their class assembly to the school around the theme of staying safe online. As you will know, online safety is a key component of safeguarding children and we all need to take responsibility in keeping children safe. The link below offers advice to parents/carers around online safety:

Word of the Week

This week's Word of the Week is respect. Please discuss its meaning with your child/ren and encourage them to share what they have learned with their teachers in school to receive gems. Do they know the origin? Can they use the word correctly in a sentence? Can they identify and explain the meaning of alternative forms e.g., respectful/respectfully? Can they identify any synonyms or antonyms?

Please find below previous words that we have used in school:

Previous words	certain, mourn, congregate, collaborate, community, progressive, convention
