First day back after the break

The children return to school after the break at 8:57am on Wednesday 23rd April.

Safeguarding - attendance

School's have a legal obligation to know where children on its roll are every day. Parents/carers need to ensure that the school is communicated with every day a child is absent, even if the absence is continuous, as not being able to locate a child is a safeguarding concern. Please ensure that you contact the School daily when a child is absent, either by calling the school office or adding a note on the Compass app. Should the school receive no communication, we will need to conduct a home visit.

Keyworth data

	Keyworth	National
Percentage of children eligible for Free School Meals	52.5%	25.9%
Percentage of children whose first language is not English	36%	22.8%
Disadvantaged children achieving the expected standard in Reading, Writing and Maths at the end of Year 6	59%	46%
Disadvantaged children achieving greater depth in Reading, Writing and Maths at the end of Year 6	11%	3%
Total attendance of children to school	93.2%	94.1%
Children persistently absent from school (attendance below 90%)	20.2%	16.2%

To summarise the table above and to provide further information, Keyworth is performing in the top 10% of similar schools in the country. We have significantly higher levels of children eligible for Free School Meals and whose first language is not English, but are closing the attainment gap for pupils who meet these criteria. For all groups of children leaving year 6 (except for those with poor attendance), outcomes are consistently strong across all areas and over a number of years.

For children who had consistently poor attendance to school (persistently absent - below 90%), around half of them did not meet the expected standard in all areas at the end of Year 6 last year. Additionally, overall school attendance and persistent absence figures show that Keyworth is significantly below other schools in the country - this is really impacting children's learning and whole school outcomes.

Persistent absence - national data

A pupil is considered persistently absent if they miss 10% or more of their possible sessions over a year/key stage. Pupils who were persistently absent had lower levels of attainment at the end of KS2 than other pupils:

- Of those who were persistently absent, 40.2% achieved the expected standard in reading, writing and Maths compared to 83.9% of pupils with no missed sessions and 71.9% who missed between 0 and 5%;
- Similarly, 2.5% of persistently absent pupils achieved the higher standard compared to 21.8% of pupils with no missed sessions and 13.1% who missed between 0 and 5%.

(.gov data, 06.05.2022)

To summarise, nearly 60% of children who were persistently absent from school did not meet the expected standard in Reading, Writing and Maths by the end of year 6.

Percentage of sessions missed over key stage 2	Percentage of pupils achieving (Dark Blue)	Percentage of pupils achieving (Light Blue)
