HISTORY: Women Who Changed the World

Enquiry Question: Can you describe the life of an individual who has contributed to national and international achievements? Who deserves to be most remembered and why?

Key Knowledge/People
 Florence Nightingale (1820 – 1910) campaigned to improve health standards and wrote over 200 books and pamphlets on hospital planning. Some of their ideas helped influence practices which are still in existence today.	 Mary Seacole (1805 – 1881) was born in Jamaica in 1805. In 1844, she helped care for people with Yellow Fever. She travelled to help soldiers injured in the Crimean War but was turned away because of the colour of her skin.	 Edith Cavell (1865-1915) was a British nurse, working in German-occupied Belgium during the First World War. She helped hundreds of British, French and Belgian soldiers escape the Germans.
 Malala Yousafazi (1997 – present) is a Pakistani woman who campaigns for the right for girls to go to school. She is the youngest ever winner of the Nobel Peace Prize and continues to fight for girls to be treated fairly all over the world.	 Emmeline Pankhurst (1858-1928) was a British woman who campaigned for women's rights. She is most famous for founding the Suffragette organization which fought for women to have the right to vote.	 Claudia Jones (1915 – 1964) was a Trinidad and Tobago-born journalist and activist. She helped to establish the Notting Hill Carnival.

Homework - Women Who Changed the World

WRITING AND HISTORY

You have a homework scrap book to use to complete your homework project. Over the next few weeks complete some of these activities or make some up of your own. You are also welcome to post your homework on google classroom.

PROJECT: Significant Women:

Can you research woman a woman of your choice who has had an impact on the world? What did she do? Why is she significant?

How to present:

- Draw a Poster
- Make a Fact File
- You could: Create a video of yourself presenting all about the person. Could you use a green screen?
- Create a poster or a mini book?
- Create a timeline of their life with key events

Remember, this person must have had an impact nationally or internationally (significant rather than famous).

ART

- Create a portrait of someone significant. You can use any material you like! Can you explain why they are significant?
- Who would you put on a bank note? For example, Jane Austen. Design a new £20 note with the face of an inspirational figure.
